KASICH SIGNS THREE EXECUTIVE ORDERS

COLUMBUS – Today Governor John R. Kasich signed Executive Orders 2013-06K, 2013-07K and 2013-08K.

Executive Order 2013-06K is the emergency amendment to change Rules 5101:3-1-06.1, 5101:3-1-06.4 and 5101:3-1-06.5, as part of the Ohio Administrative Code, that raise the maximum reimbursement rates for PASSPORT, Choices, and Assisted Living waiver services. EO 2013-06K can be viewed here.

Executive Order 2013-07K is the emergency adoption of rule 5101:3-2-65 of the Ohio Administrative Code which will allow the Ohio Office of Medical Assistance (Department of Medicaid) to implement the APR-DRG system on July 1, 2013. EO 2013-07K can be viewed here.

Executive Order 2013-08K authorizes the Governor's Office of Faith Based and Community Initiatives (GOFBCI) to expend up to $6,540,000 in Temporary Assistance of Needy Families (TANF) funds. GOFBCI has allocated funds for the following: to provide for case management services to assist Moms2B in reducing effects of low birth-weight babies; to assist After-School All-Stars to enhance after-school enrichment programs for low-income, at-risk children; assist the Truly Reaching You Prisoner Reentry Program in Akron to help parents re-integrate into society; to provide early childhood and parenting program services to Mom's House in Toledo; to assist Coats for Kids in Cleveland in providing new coats to at-risk youth; and to assist the Ohio Association of Foodbanks in the completion of the 2013 Summer Meals Delivery Program. EO 2013-08K can be viewed here.
