

JOHN R. KASICH
GOVERNOR
STATE OF OHIO

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, during the afternoon of Wednesday, June 11, 2014, severe storms and high winds impacted Columbiana County. These storms created dangerous conditions and damages, resulting in power outages, large amounts of debris and damage to private and public property; and

WHEREAS, the lives and well-being of the citizens of Columbiana County, Ohio have been adversely impacted by the severe storms and high winds and continue to be affected because of the damage in the area;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John R. Kasich, Governor of the State of Ohio, hereby declare that a state of emergency exists for Columbiana County satisfying the authorization of such personnel of state departments and agencies as are necessary, in accordance with Sections 5502.22 and 5502.28 of the Ohio Revised Code, to assist the county in protecting the lives, safety, health, and property of its citizens.

This Proclamation does not require the implementation of the Department of Administrative Services Directive HR-D-11 (dated October 6, 2011) or the Department of Administrative Services' "Weather (Public Safety) Procedure" (revised May 2010). Accordingly, classified and unclassified exempt employees' obligation to travel to and from work is not to be limited as a result of this proclamation.

I issued this Proclamation on June 13, 2014 and it took effect immediately. I signed the memorialization of that Emergency Proclamation on June 13, 2014 in Columbus, Ohio. It will remain in full force and effect until the emergency no longer exists, such time to be determined by the Executive Director of the Emergency Management Agency, who will coordinate state response efforts and terminate the emergency upon the recommendation of appropriate officials of the other responding state department/agencies.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name at Columbus,
Ohio, on the 13th day of June, 2014.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "John R. Kasich", written over a horizontal line.

JOHN R. KASICH
Governor