

Office of the Governor, State of Ohio

2011 Year in Pictures

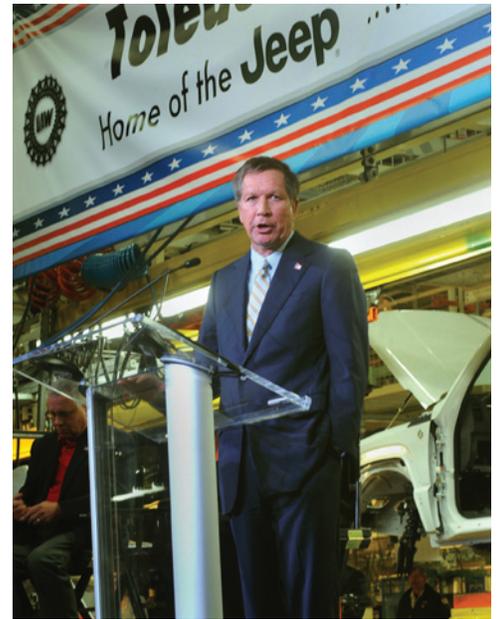

(clockwise starting above)

- Gov. Kasich speaks during the Columbus 9/11 ten-year anniversary.
- A new dessert product follows the announcement, Aug. 8, that Wendy's will return to Dublin, Ohio.
- State Rep. Tracy Heard joins Gov. Kasich as the sentencing reform bill is signed into law, June 29, in Columbus.
- Gov. Kasich is seen through a jet engine hoist during a visit to Rhinestahl's facility in Mason, May 9.
- Gov. Kasich signs the Rx drug abuse bill in Columbus, May 20.
- Gov. Kasich speaks during the Veterans Hall of Fame ceremony, Nov. 10, in Columbus.

(top row, left to right)

- Gov. Kasich is joined by Lt. Gov. Mary Taylor to talk about the Common Sense Initiative the Governor signed, March 4, in Columbus.
- Gov. Kasich gives closing remarks, Sept. 21, to conclude his 2-day energy summit at The Ohio State University in Columbus.
- On Nov. 16, Gov. Kasich announces that Chrysler will invest $500 million at the Toledo North Assembly Plant, which will create 1,105 jobs.

(left)

- On June 30th, Gov. Kasich signs Ohio's Budget Bill at the Statehouse in Columbus.

(bottom row, left to right)

- Gov. Kasich announces, Oct. 4, the expansion of Air Transport Services Group/AMES in Wilmington, which will create 259 new jobs and retain 395 jobs. AMES will occupy the vacated DHL hub.
- Gov. Kasich attends the Diebold announcement, April 12, that the company will expand its world headquarters campus in North Canton.

(clockwise starting on top) On March 15 in Columbus, Gov. Kasich introduces his Jobs Budget during a town hall meeting. | Gov. Kasich poses for a photo with the Fort Hayes Choir following the choir's performance at the Ohio Legislative Black Caucus Foundation's annual luncheon in Columbus, Feb. 15. | Appearing at the TARRIER Steel Company in Columbus, Jan. 20, Gov. Kasich announces the beginning of the legislative process to create JobsOhio. | Gov. Kasich tours the Lorain County Ford plant, Dec. 6, following the announcement that Ford will invest $128 million and move operations to Ohio from Mexico. | Gov. Kasich speaks to a joint session of the Ohio General Assembly, March 8, during his first State of the State address as governor of Ohio. | Gov. Kasich greets third grade Maryland Elementary students in the Cabinet Room, Feb. 15, as the students tour the Statehouse in Columbus.

(front cover) Ohio's first family stops for a photo while touring the Ohio State Fair in Columbus on opening day, July 27th.