KASICH APPOINTS LAWRENCE J. KIDD TO JOBSOHIO BOARD

COLUMBUS – Today Gov. John R. Kasich announced the appointment of Lawrence J. Kidd of Jackson (Jackson Co.) to the board of directors of JobsOhio, the new private, nonprofit corporation that will lead Ohio's job creation and economic development activities.

Lawrence J. Kidd is Principal/CEO of Reliable Staffing Services and RSS Professional, LLC, independently-owned staffing companies in Jackson. He is a co-founder of 10 in 10, a program dedicated to creating 10,000 jobs in 10 years in southeastern Ohio and has served as the Chair of the Jackson County Economic Development Board.

Kidd is the ninth member of the JobsOhio Board. His term runs from September 2, 2011 until July 5, 2015. Board members serve without financial compensation. The terms run from one to four years and are staggered.
