

OFFICE OF GOVERNOR-ELECT JOHN KASICH AND LT. GOVERNOR-ELECT MARY TAYLOR

COLUMBUS, OHIO

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 30, 2010

GOVERNOR-ELECT JOHN KASICH APPOINTS AGENCY DIRECTORS TO EPA, ODNR

COLUMBUS – Today Governor-elect John Kasich announced his appointments to lead the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency (OEPA) and the Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR). At a press conference in Columbus, Gov.-elect Kasich appointed Scott Nally to be director of OEPA and David Mustine to be director of ODNR. Kasich made an additional announcement that Scott Zody will be Assistant Director of ODNR under Mustine.

Scott Nally, Director of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency

Nally has more than 20 years of environmental experience and a proven track record of protecting the environment while encouraging responsible economic growth. Since 2005, Nally has served as the Assistant Commissioner of Indiana's Department of Environmental Management (IDEM) where he was responsible for the Department's budget, policy development and enforcement, and all information technology projects undertaken by the Department. Prior to joining IDEM, Nally spent 11 years as the regional environmental manager for Perdue Foods in Washington, Indiana.

David Mustine, Director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources

Mustine is a former Senior Vice President at Columbus-based American Electric Power (AEP) in its regulated business unit. At AEP, his responsibilities included regulatory and issues management, support services, business planning, financial management, business development and community services. He also worked for AEP in London. Since 2008, he has served as a director of Terraseis, an oil and gas services business based in Dubai.

Scott Zody, Assistant Director of ODNR

Zody's 20-year career in public service has been spent primarily at ODNR, where he served for nearly five years as the Department's Legislative Liaison and eight years as the Deputy Director for Recreation and Resource Management. Zody is an avid outdoorsman and forest landowner, managing approximately 20 acres of woodlands around his Fairfield County home.

###